

Are you feeling lonely?

Close friends and good relationships can reduce feelings of loneliness and be good for your health.

In November, the City of Oslo would like to learn about your health and well-being. Have you received an e-mail inviting you to respond to the Oslo public health survey?

We hope you respond. Your responses will give us valuable insight about the population.

Together for Better Health

Want to find out more about the survey?

Folkehelseinstituttet